

Shamanic Counseling

A shamanic counseling session offers insight, guidance and tools to address a client's current issues and challenges. The intention is to provide practical ways to help shift what is out of balance into a place of alignment and harmony. These sessions can be done in person, or over the phone for 30, 60 or 90 minutes. Each session is recorded for future reference.

